

Bloom Asset Management Ranked on CNBC List of Top Fee-Only Wealth Management Firms in U.S.

Bloom Asset Management has been ranked on the list of CNBC Top 100 Fee-Only Wealth Management Firms in the U.S. for 2014 and 2015. Bloom Asset Management was also the highest ranking Michigan-based firm on the CNBC Top 100 rankings for those two years.

The Top 100 rankings were based on a methodology CNBC Digital developed to measure a variety of elements to determine a firm's ranking, including assets under management; the amount of staff with professional financial designations; average account size; growth of assets; and years in business.

The five-year annualized growth rate listed for the firms in the CNBC Top 100 appears to be overstated.
